

ALISA DETLEFSEN

GIRLS SOCCER COACH

Alisa Detlefsen is a passionate and accomplished soccer player and coach with over 20 years of experience in the sport. A native of Jacksonville, Florida, Alisa attended St. Johns Country Day School, where she earned an impressive seven high school state rings in soccer.

Alisa continued her soccer career at Troy University, a Division I school, where she played for six years and logged over 6,000 minutes on the field. As a leader, she served as team captain for three years, guiding her teammates with dedication and drive.

During her time at Troy, she earned a Bachelor's degree in Graphic Design and a Master's in Strategic Communications.

In addition to her playing experience, Alisa has spent the past five years coaching youth soccer in Troy, AL, with local clubs, helping to develop young players and instill a love for the game. Now, she's thrilled to bring her leadership skills and soccer expertise to Jacksonville Classical, where she can't wait to kick off the season and help her players reach new heights. Her passion for coaching and her commitment to fostering growth make her a perfect fit for the team!
