

ALAN HELQUIST

HEAD BASKETBALL COACH

Coach Alan Helquist is the Kindergarten-6th grade physical education teacher and boys' middle school and high school basketball coach at Jacksonville Classical Academy in Jacksonville, Florida. An alumnus of Florida State University, Coach Helquist has been coaching middle school and high school basketball in Jacksonville for over 27 years. Putting character and work ethic at the forefront, he has a passion for teaching and coaching.

In his role as basketball coach, Alan fosters and promotes a positive environment, instilling confidence and pride in all his players and students. He is known for building winning basketball programs, while also preparing his players and students to be successful off the court. Coach Helquist believes in fairness, decency, hard work, dedication, and good manners. By teaching these lessons daily, Alan knows this will prepare his players and students for life success.

---