

Rebecca Dugger

Rebecca Dugger is the Client Relations Administrator for Madden Advisory Firm. Madden Advisory is a wealth management firm, headquartered in Jacksonville, Florida, and currently serves Georgia, Louisiana, and Texas. As one of the area's prominent financial advisory firms, Madden Advisory Services provides expertise in investment, asset management, retirement, insurance, estate, and financial advisory services. Madden Advisory also hosts one of the Nation's longest-running financial talk radio shows, SmartMoney.

Rebecca has an extensive background in nonprofit leadership and development. She is a graduate of Georgetown University, McCourt School of Public Policy, and has served over 10 years as Director of Development for several area nonprofit organizations, most prominently, the Justice Coalition. Rebecca is also an award recipient of one of Jacksonville's 12 Pillar awards.

Rebecca is a long-time resident of Jacksonville's Historic Avondale, where she lives with her two sons, Carson and Danny. She enjoys traveling, kayaking, and spending time with family.